

Vocational Nursing

Leslie Catalan

Submitted by Rosette Strandberg

Leslie is a first-semester VN student. She has consistently excelled in all 3 components of the nursing program. Academics: Leslie is maintaining an A+ in all her theory classes. She is attentive, an active participant, and masters difficult concepts easily. Lab: Leslie always comes prepared to the lab, practices diligently, and supports others. Clinical: Leslie is professional, competent, and an excellent patient advocate. She applies theory to practice very well. Leslie is always positive and a pleasure to work with. Faculty and students alike have enormous respect for Leslie. She will be an excellent nurse and it is our pleasure to select her as our department's "Outstanding Student of the Year".

Leslie's Words of Gratitude

I'm grateful to be receiving this award. I want to thank the instructors for their continuous encouragement and support. It has been a memorable first semester for me. I'm excited to continue working hard in the program and look forward to the new experiences.
